

Shining a light on unsung artisans

To mark the completion of 10 years, the INTACH Madurai chapter in a graceful gesture celebrated the city's artistes and crafts persons who have been the silent trailblazers in keeping the cultural traditions alive

Published - January 03, 2018 03:47 pm IST - MADURAI:

SOMA BASU

“Together we are striving towards the protection of our cultural and natural heritage be it tangible or intangible. In the coming years we will strengthen our networking amongst heritage professionals, enthusiastic students, craftsmen, and local citizens to up the awareness and appreciation of various aspects of our diverse heritage and cultural and philosophical tradition. We believe this linkage will generate interest, involvement and concern and help to preserve Madurai's rich heritage for future generations. Dr.Uma Kannan